<tr>
<td>Summary</td>
<td>This exhibition is an unrivalled tribute to the most important mediaeval artist of the Netherlands. With an expected 20 paintings (panels and triptychs) and 19 drawings, it is the largest-ever overview exhibition dedicated to Hieronymus Bosch (ca. 1450 Den Bosch 1516). Once-only the vast majority of his works will return to Den Bosch, the city where he was born as Jheronimus van Aken, where he painted his masterpieces and from which he derived his artist’s name of Bosch. The exhibition is the highlight of the National Hieronymus Bosch 500 Events Year being celebrated in 2016 to mark the 500th anniversary of the artist’s death.</td>

<tr>
<td>Research</td>
<td>The exhibition called Jheronimus Bosch – Visions of Genius and the exhibition catalogue of the same name are based largely on the results of the Bosch Research and Conservation Project. This international research work is an initiative of the Noordbrabants Museum, Radboud University Nijmegen and the Jheronimus Bosch 500 Foundation.</td>
